

Improving Sentences: E-books and paper books

In recent years, more and more people are choosing to read e-books rather than paper books.

Do you advantages outweigh the disadvantages?

The statements below are taken from a student's essay and contain some mistakes.

Can you re-write these sentences so that they are not only correct but also higher band score?

1. In my <sup>opinion</sup> point of view, reading digital books <sup>has</sup> more advantages compared <sup>to</sup> with printed books.
2. First and foremost, E-book is been accessed, nowadays, easily by the people in a fraction of seconds <sup>can be accessed easily</sup> through the advanced modern communication technologies.
3. Secondly, buying ~~an~~ <sup>is</sup> electronic version books <sup>are</sup> easier than the printed paper books. <sup>purchasing → via:</sup>
4. On the other hand, <sup>People's</sup> health will affect when they spend more time <sup>on</sup> to read books <sup>can have negative affect on pp's health</sup> by using the modern gadgets such as laptop, mobile phones and tablets.
5. In conclusion, in my view, electronic version books ~~bring more pleasure and~~ <sup>be</sup> easily to access. <sup>are easily accessible and are purchased more easier</sup>

book are